The general financial result of the year, as appears from the detailed report of the Treasurer, is that after meeting all expenditures from the annual receipts, including initiation fees, a balance of $3,194.43 has been paid over to the Finance Committee, and the Club enters upon its new year with no outstanding bills.

Extraordinary expenditures during the year have amounted to $11,020.78; alterations and repairs, $2,357.14, and for repairs and renewals to furnishings, etc., $9,310.21.

The house has been put and kept in good shape, and the Committee desires especially to express its appreciation of the services of the House Committee and of its Chairman, Mr. Herbert P. Brown, now about concluding three years of service in such position. Those three years have seen a very substantial renovation and improvement in the house, and the adoption of a system in the management of accounts, and internal checks, under which we are persuaded a perfect accountability in every department has been established, and can be easily maintained.

This year a new set of billiard tables has been put in the billiard-room; new carpets and rugs have been laid in the dining-rooms, billiard-room and main hall and the house furnishings—linen, silver and glassware, cutlery, etc.—have been adequately provided.

The roll of Honorary Members of this Club is a roll of honor, and will always be so regarded. Upon the nomination of the Executive Committee, the Club has added to that list a man distinguished in letters, in diplomacy, and in administration, the Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State of the United States.

Although the Club has already acted upon the matter, this Committee desires to make special note of its sense of loss in the death of one of the most genial and lovable of men who have ever served the Club upon this Committee, Frank H. Carpenter.

On December 14th Baron Kentaro delivered at the Club an instructive address on the Constitutional Government of Japan.

The national election having taken place this year, in which the candidate of the Republican Party for President was Theodore Roosevelt, a member since 1884, this Club renewed the traditions of its foundation and historical development by earnest and efficient work in support of the principles and candidate, whose success was believed to be for the best interests of the Republic.

A Campaign Committee was appointed, through whom $31,490 was collected in voluntary contributions from members of the Club, and turned over to the National Committee, of which Committee the President of this Club was serving as Treasurer for the fourth successive campaign.

Several notable events in connection with public affairs should be mentioned. Under the management of the Sub-Committee appointed by the Executive Committee, a subscription dinner was given on February 3, 1904, at the Club-house, to the Hon. Elihu Root, a former President of the Club, on his retirement from the position of Secretary of War, after a memorable service of five years. Mr. Root's speech upon that occasion was ordered to be printed by the Club. Its effect in arousing the old spirit and solidifying the sentiment of this organization in support of the party and the President cannot be exaggerated.

At the meeting on September 8th the campaign, so far as this Club was concerned, was opened by an eloquent address by Senator Chauncey M. Depew.

At the meeting on October 13th the regular order of business was suspended, while the Club listened to a masterly presentation of the condition in the Philippines, before and after our occupation, by the former Governor General thereof, the present Secretary of War, the Hon. William H. Taft, as well as to a straightforward declaration as to his motives and policies, if elected, by the Republican candidate for Governor, the Hon. Frank W. Higgins. The Club unanimously adopted resolutions in support and commendation of the National and State tickets.

On October 20th a special meeting was held for the purpose of listening to a scholarly address on some of the questions of the campaign, by the former Attorney General, the present Senator from Pennsylvania, the Hon. Philander C. Knox.

Your Committee desires to emphasize these events in the year's history of the Club, in order to remind members of the fact that this institution is not merely a social organization, but that it has been a power in shaping the policies of the country since its foundation, and that the older men who served the Club and the country so well in the early days of its history may know that the same spirit and endeavor for the public good is evidenced, not only by its many individuals in the public service, but by the Club as a whole.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

John Proctor Clarke,
Chairman, Executive Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY AND PUBLICATIONS OF THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB

NEW YORK, January 12, 1905.

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Library and Publications takes pleasure in presenting its annual report for the year 1904 as follows :

The total number of volumes now catalogued is 11,772, and the additions during the year have been 694 volumes. Of these the Club has purchased 249, and 445 have been presented.

The collection of about three hundred volumes of the debates in Congress, including the Annals of Congress, the Congressional Record and Globe presented by the Hon. Warner Miller, have been suitably housed in the No. 2 writing room.

A number of volumes were needed to make the set complete, and the Superintendent of Documents at Washington forwarded seventy-four of the needed volumes.

The Committee has been in receipt of a large number of recommendations for the purchase of particular books during the year, from the members of the Club, and so far as practicable, which means in nearly every instance, these works were purchased and added to the Library.

The Committee has followed the policy of keeping the Library supplied with the latest and most authoritative works on the countries, which now are, or have very recently been, the theatre of historical events, and has supplied the Library with the most recent maps of such regions.

Biography, science, memoirs, and general literature, have nôt been neglected, and the circulating libraries to which the Club subscribes, have kept the members in touch with the less permanent sort of fiction and works of ephemeral interest.

A portion of the appropriation for the past year has been allotted to the bringing of the law books down to date, by the purchase of such codes, statutes, and other works on law as shall be needed for that purpose.

Many new reference books of great value have been added to the Library, among which may be mentioned a set of the latest Baedeker's Guide Books, Bryan's Dictionary of Painters and Engravers, Directories of London and Paris, Poole's Index, and Adam's Dictionary of the Drama.

Other additions to the Library during the year include sets of the works of Bret Harte, Eugene Field, Guy de Maupassant, Count Tolstoi, Tourguénieff, and others.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRISON K. BIRD,
Chairman.

HENRY COLE QUINBY,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ART

New York, January 12, 1905.

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Art begs to submit the following statement of the exhibitions given in the Club during the year now ended. Six monthly exhibitions in all have been given.

In February, an exhibition of paintings by French masters.

In March, an exhibition of portraits by American artists.

In April, a collection of American figure paintings.

In November, modern French masters, and in December we had the good fortune of being able to present to the Club the very beautiful private collection of Mr. A. C. Humphreys.

For January, we have a general exhibition of landscape and figure paintings by American artists, not included in our more special exhibitions.

The Committee on Art again thanks the artists and exhibitors, without whose kindly aid we should have been unable to place so many beautiful works upon the walls of the Club galleries.

Robert V. V. Sewell,
Chairman.

Paulding Farnham,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITICAL REFORM

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Political Reform respectfully reports:

A resolution having been adopted by the Club authorizing the Campaign Committee to issue such publications as it deemed necessary bearing upon the presidential election, this Committee did not feel called upon to prepare a report, touching the issues then pending, as it was deemed wiser to have the responsibility of the publications affecting these issues controlled directly by the Committee having the campaign in charge.

The Committee understands that in addition to the copies of the report on Suffrage at the South adopted a year ago last month, distributed to the members of the Club, 2,500 copies were issued for general distribution.

Since the date of the last report a resolution presented by Mr. O'Conor proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, basing representation in the House of Representatives upon the votes cast at a general election, has been reported by this Committee with the recommendation that it be adopted. This Committee did not consider that it could properly report the resolution without recommendation and it was quite unwilling to report adversely to it. The report and the resolution were laid upon the table, on recommendation of the Committee to the end that it might be brought up for consideration at some meeting when the plan could receive thorough and careful discussion. The report has been placed in the hands of all the members, and due notice will be given of the time when it is proposed by the Committee to take it from the table.

No substantial advance seems yet to have been made in public sentiment in regard to any plan for a solution of the difficulty presented by what this Committee believes to be the suppression of the colored vote in the Southern States.

The report of this Committee presented at the last meeting recommending Congressional investigation as to what changes, if any, are desirable in the present tariff schedules was adopted, and has been distributed.

Another report by the Committee favoring the non-taxation of mortgages was adopted, and has also been distributed.

No topic referred by the Club to the Committee during the past year remains in its hands.

Respectfully submitted,

CEPHAS BRAINERD,
Chairman.

CHARLES T. HARBECK,
Secretary.
